

Understanding the world
Begin to make sense of their own life and family

Remember the 5th November?
The Gunpowder plot. significant events beyond living memory

Victorians and their discoveries.
The lives of significant individuals who have contributed to international achievements.

Flight
Changes in aspect of our social history - Wright Brothers – The lives of significant individuals who have contributed to international achievements.

The Great Fire
Significant events beyond living memory.

The Tudors
The lives of significant individuals who have contributed to international achievements
Americas - Columbus Raleigh Drake

Space-The Final Frontier
Changes in aspects of our social history
Neil Armstrong –The lives of significant individuals who have contributed to international achievements

Pre Sch

Rec

Year One

Year Two

Understanding the world
Talk about familiar images from the past
Compare and contrast characters from stories and figures from the past

Roman Britain
A local history study of the Romans in the SW

Ancient Greek
A study of Greek Life and the achievements and influences on the western world

Land of the Pharoes
The achievements of the early civilisations
Tutankhamun
Howard Carter

Stone age – Bronze Age
Changes in Britain from the stone age

Year Three

Across KS1, children will develop an awareness and describe the past, chronology, similarity difference, ask and answer questions, use a wide vocabulary of historical terms and Understand some of the ways in which we find out about the past.

Across KS2, children will continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge and understanding of local, British, and world history. Note connections, contrasts, and trends over time and develop the appropriate use of historical terms. Address questions about change, cause, similarity, difference, and significance. Understand how our knowledge of the past is constructed from a range of sources.

Year Four

Prehistoric World
lives of significant individuals who have contributed to international achievements.
Mary Anning

Year Five

Saxon and Viking Britain
The Viking and Anglo Saxon struggle.
Battle Of Ethundune

The Magna Carta
A study of a significant turning point in British history
King John

'Classics'
The lives of significant individuals who have contributed to international achievements
Shakespeare / Austin / Shelly Dickens

The Industrial Revolution
The lives of significant individuals who have contributed to international achievements
The First Railways Isambard Kingdom Brunel

Year Six

Britain at War
A study of a significant turning point in British history
George V/ Hitler / Churchill / George VI / Afganistan

The Tudors and Stewarts
The lives of significant individuals who have contributed to international achievements

Road Map - History